

Learning Objective #14 Communications

- Watch Learning Objective Video #14
- Review pages 70-74 of the Emergency Action Planning Workbook
- Review page 25 of “Are You Ready”
- Review print and distribute pg. Two “Family Communication Plan”
- Review chapter Two through Five pg. 8-32 “Personal Emergency Communications”
- Review pages. 34-37 Communication is Key “Urban Emergency Survival Plan”
- Review pages 388-398 Critical Communications “When All Hell Breaks Loose”
- Write your answers to the Following Questions:

1. What is your primary communication medium?

2. What is your secondary communication medium?

3. Who is your out of town contact?

Communications

- To be in touch
- A giving or exchanging of information
- Local Phones
- Cell Phones
- Radio Communication Devices
- Satellite Phones
- Out of Town Contact
- Work
- School
- Practical Exercise

Local Phones

- Why Can't I Use It?
- Busy, Busy, Busy

Cell Phones

- Why Can't I use It?
- Dropping Out

Change

- Quarters Anyone
- Backup

Pre-Paid Phone Cards

- KISS
- Backup

Radio Communication Devices

- FRS/GMRS
- CB
- HAM

Bulletin Boards

- Laundry Mat
- Grocery Store

Out of Town Contact

- You Have Told Them. Right
- Voice
- E Mail
- USPS

Work

- Rules
- Messages

School

- SOP's
- Who Are You Really Talking To

Resources

- Local
- County
- Federal
- Private Sector
- Family & Friends

<http://www.emergencyemail.org/default.asp>

FEMA IPAWS program website: www.fema.gov/ipaws

FEMA Ready.gov website www.ready.gov

National Weather Service website: www.weather.gov

Federal Communications Commission website: www.fcc.gov/search/results/alertSystems

Practical Exercise

- Primary Communication Mode
- Secondary Communication Mode
- Communications Worksheet
- Out of Town Contact
- Communications Clock

Review

- To Be in Touch
- An Exchanging of Information
- Local Phones
- Cell Phones
- Radio Communication Devices
- Bulletin Boards
- Out of Town Contact
- Work
- School
- Resources
- Practical Exercise
- Learning Objective 15: Evacuation

Go to Learning Objective #15

Evacuation