

Learning Objective #17 Clothing & Bedding

- Watch Learning Objective Video #17

- Review pages 73-76 of the Emergency Action Planning Workbook

- Review page 198 (Clothing and Bedding Supplies Appendix B) of “Are You Ready”

- Review chapter 12 Gimme Shelter pages 100-105 “When all Hell Breaks Loose”.

- Write your answers to the Following Questions:
 1. Are the necessary materials available, or do you need to collect them?

 2. If you need supplementary clothing or bedding. What are they, and how will you secure them?

 3. Where are you going to store these packages?

 4. What are your special considerations regarding clothing and bedding?

Clothing & Bedding

- Wearing Apparel, Work Clothes
- Bedding, A Place of Rest
- Evacuation
- Minimum requirements
- Sturdy Shoes or Work boots
- Rain Gear
- Label, Date & Rotate
- Sleeping Bags, Bedding
- Tents
- Special Considerations
- Resources
- Practical Exercise

Wearing Apparel, Work Clothes

- Let's Be Reasonable
- Form & Function

Bedding, A Place of Rest

- This Is Important
- No Rest For The Weary

Evacuation

- Let's Be Reasonable
- Form & Function

Minimum Requirements

- One Change Of Sturdy Cloths
- Shoes/Boots
- Wet Weather Gear
- Environment Specific

Sturdy Shoes or Work Boots

- No New Footwear
- Shoe Trees

Label, Date & Rotate

- Children, How Fast Do They Grow
- Keeping Track

Rain Gear

- Just A Precaution
- Let's Be Realistic

Sleeping Bags, Bedding

- KISS
- A Little Touch Of Home

Shelter, Tents

- Is This For You
- How Big Does It Need To Be

Special Considerations

- What Are They
- Who Are They

Resources

- Local
- County
- Federal
- NPO's
- Private Sector
- Family & Friends

Practical Exercise

- Just Like A Camping Trip
- Involve Everyone

Review

- Wearing Apparel, Work Clothes
- A Place Of Rest
- Evacuation
- Minimum Requirements
- Sturdy Shoes Or Work Boots
- Rain Gear
- Label, Date & Rotate
- Sleeping Bags, Bedding
- Shelter, Tents
- Special Considerations
- Resources
- Practical Exercise
- Learning Objective 17: Tools & Supplies

Go to Learning Objective #18

Tools & Supplies