Stay Informed and Stay Safe

Daniel Kilburn

Do not be afraid to take risks.

Take action, fail fast and often, only then will you learn to succeed.

Treat yourself as good as you can, there are many who will want to treat you badly. Do not let them.

Bring others along with your success.

Your friends, who have no goals, wants, needs, or desires, will want to keep you from yours. They don't want to lose you to success, they choose to be mediocre and want you to stay with them. Get new friends.

You really do have "Spidey Sense" listen to it.

Learn something new every day.

Teach someone something every day.

Do not worry about what people think or say about you; it's either the truth or it is not.

Don't do anything that you don't want to read about in tomorrow's newspaper.

The day will come when you look back on your life, there will be regrets, not because of what you did, but because of what you failed to do. Do them.

Love yourself, only then can you be loved.

Find your passion and follow it.

Do not listen to those that say no, they either don't know better, or they want you to be without.
Always go up the ladder to get the answers you need.

Nothing is so good that you need to get it now or it'll be gone. Wait a minute, sleep on it. If it's that good it'll be there tomorrow.

Only believe half of what you see, and nothing of what you hear.

There is no scarcity; the world is full of abundance. Take what belongs to you.

Stay inquisitive; ask questions, it will keep you young.

Plan for the worst, prepare for the best.

Discover your values and live by them.

It is better to ask for forgiveness than permission.
